EDITORIAL NOTES.

When General Sherman was getting ready for his move on Atlanta, great quantities of ammunition were stored in the railroad sheds at Resaca, Georgia. One day, in the midst of a thunder storm, that dismantled the camp, the ammunition building was struck by lightning. Hundreds of the bravest soldiers ran blindly away as they saw the boxes of shell thrown about, saw the guards drop as if shot, and saw smoke issuing from the top of the great pile of explosives. But one man, clear-eyed and cool-headed, saw that the smoke came from low in which the shells were packed, and, climbing to the top, he seized the burning mast, and holding it up, shouted, "All right, boys; no fireworks this time." His intrepidity and alertness saved the ammunition, and possibly many lives.

The wonderful strides in breeding and training trotters is shown with remarkable force by the statement in the Live Stock Journal, which says: If Maud S. should be matched to perform a mile in 2:08, the odds in favor of time would be less than they were in 1810, when Boston Blue was matched against time to trot a mile in three minutes. In the years intervening a few seconds represent the improvement in thoroughbred time, but here is nearly a minute knocked off by the trotters.

The Carson Index publishes a letter addressed to A. D. Treadway and signed by several farmers of Ormsby county, asking permission to present the Farmer's name to the Republican Convention for the nomination of Governor. Uncle Tread canvassed the proposition and found nutriment in the idea and so expresses himself in a card replying to the request.

Secretary Babcock does not care at the mention of the Douglas county or any other man for Secretary of State, and claims to have letters from different parts of the State attesting him a renomination.—Carson Tribune.

Self-assurance is half the battle. Stay with it Jasper and don't allow yourself to be counted out—until after the convention meets anyway.

Mr. Matt Canavan seems to be gaining friends all over the State, and from present indications he will be the Democratic nominee, unless the "dark horse" is trotted out as a compromise candidate.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

A Destructive Storm.

MILWAUKEE, August 4.

The most destructive storm which has visited this section for years swept over the city yesterday. The damage to property is variously estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000. But two lives are reported lost, Wm. Kofheimer and Angus Smith, killed by lightning. The Eighth District school and seven dwelling-houses and a schooner were struck by lightning. The most damage done to property was done by water, which filled all the basements in the flat part of the city. Many business houses near the city suffered a heavy loss of goods stored in basements. It is reported that the water came in suddenly on a family living in a basement on the west side, and in their haste to remove the furniture a baby which lay in a cradle, was drowned. The sewers of the city proved inadequate for such a fall of water, and much damage was done to the streets, and many of the sewer pipes were broken by the pressure of water.

A Stalwart's Reward.

WASHINGTON, August 3.

President Arthur to-day nominated William Waldorff Astor, of New York, to be Minister to Rome, vice George P. Marsh, deceased. Mr. Astor was one of the noble twenty-six in the New York Senate who voted from first to last for the re-election of Mr. Conkling after that gentleman resigned from the United States Senate. Mr. Astor also clung closely to the fortunes of Mr. Platt, and when his chances waned under the blaze of a Half-breed sun, the vote of the appointees to Rome was cast for Crowley. After Astor had failed in his effort to be elected to Congress against R. F. Flower, he sailed to Europe to recuperate from the fatigue of that most extraordinary campaign, and the attractions of the Eternal City proved so fascinating that he gladly accepted the proffer of the Italian mission.

Temperance Union.

ST. PAUL, August 4.

At the third and last day's session of the National Total Abstinence Union of Roman Catholics, several papers and letters from absent brethren were read in the morning. In the afternoon resolutions were adopted thanking the hierarchy and priests who forwarded the temperance movement for deprecating the spread of bad literature, and commending to the public the action of the society. The officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows: President, Rev. John Ireland; St. Paul; vice President, Rev. J. P. Cullen, Winona; Treasurer, Rev. D. Bowles, Ohio; Secretary, Philip A. Nolan, Philadelphia. A reception was given by the citizens in the evening.

The Denver Exposition.

DENVER, August 3.

There was a good attendance at the National Mining Exposition to-day, the visitors being for the most part from different points in Colorado. Some Eastern people are arriving, but a great crowd from that direction is not expected for a week or two. The disorder incident to the first week of all expositions is being rapidly removed, and all exhibits will be in place in a few days. Leading business men are making great preparations for the monster barbecue on the 24th instant, to which all business men of the country are invited. This promises to be one of the most interesting and enjoyable features of the exhibition.

A Freight War.

BOSTON, August 4.

A dispatch from Chicago to-day foreshadowing a railroad freight war between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts stirred up people here. The business obtained by taking the California trade at cheap rates is sufficient to induce certain roads to break the pool arrangement. At the same time it was evidently thought that these practices would be discontinued was insufficient to stop the evil; but what steps would be taken to compel its enforcement it was impossible to tell.

Railroad Accident.

Beloit, Kansas, August 3.

Yesterday morning the east-bound passenger train on the Union Pacific railroad met with an accident. The engine, mail and express cars went through Burlington bridge. Engineer Bolton Craft and O. M. McGee were badly bruised and died before reaching this city.

Star Routes Trial.

WASHINGTON, August 3.

Yesterday was a bad day for the defense in the Star-route cases. A lawyer, who is not connected with the case, says the masterly cross-examination of Buell by Merrick, the Government counsel, has broken down the defense and confirmed Walsh's testimony in its essential parts. It proved that Brady bought two papers here, the Capital and the Ohio, and has been running them, as Judge Wylie said, to libel with the vituperation of hired scribblers every person connected with the administration of justice and this case.

The testimony showed that Brady was spending money long ago as an investigation in Congress to create further opinion in favor of the star-route people, and that the contractors paid large sums of money in connection with the appropriation for star routes in the last Congress which was called "in vindication of Brady." Merrick will prosecute the newspaper men whose articles have been before Judge Wylie.

The defendants in the Star route cases are demoralized over the result of the testimony of their witness A. C. Buell, yesterday. Mutual recriminations are indulged in among the defendants' counsel. Bob Ingersoll, who called the witness to the stand, has been roundly abused for so doing by his legal associates, and to-day that usually genial gentleman walked to and fro in front of the Court-house with an angry frown upon his face, only deigning to put in an appearance when the afternoon session began. The damaging character of Buell's testimony becomes all the more apparent when considered with reference to the previously produced evidence. Walsh swore that Brady paid Buell $1,000. Buell denies this and admits that Brady loaned him $10,000. After admitting that he had accepted a fee from Walsh while acting as an officer of the Senate he was confronted with his card in which he boldly declared that whoever made such a charge lied. Altogether his testimony was a boomerang for the thieves, and seems to have upset their plan of defense.

Senators Out of Luck.

WASHINGTON, August 3.

The House of Representatives this morning refused to agree to a clause of the General deficiency bill providing for the payment to Senators of extra mileage for the called session of the Senate last October. This item has been a bone of contention between the two Houses for weeks past, and the indications to-day are that the Senate will recede from its position. It is estimated that the allowance for mileage for one session each year is sufficient to pay the actual cost of transportation to Washington of the Senators fully three times.

Congressional-Senate.

WASHINGTON, August 4.

Windom, from the Foreign Relations Committee, reported favorably the House bill to establish diplomatic relations with Persia and for the appointment of a Consul General with a salary of $5,000, and it passed. The Conference report on the bill providing for the sale of part of the Omaha Indian reservation in Nebraska was concurred in.

MARIETTA, Ohio, August 4.

The Muskingum river rose suddenly at midnight and tore out more of the dam, making a gap 150 feet wide. J. B. West lost six barges of coal and Wm. Bucks three. Navigation is suspended up to the next dam, distance five miles. Total loss $25,000.

A Sport Shot.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 3.

At 5 o'clock this evening Patrick Burns, a gambler recently from Virginia City, was shot three times by Julian Pinto, a young attorney, at No. 427 Bush street. The shot took effect in the leg, arm and back, and are considered very dangerous. The parties had a quarrel on the 3d of July, resulting in Burns giving Pinto a sound whipping. This evening they met again, when Pinto drew a pistol and shot his foe. Pinto is in custody on a charge of assault to commit murder.

EGYPT'S TROUBLE.

Seamen Refuse to Proceed—A National Meeting Indorses Arabi Pasha—More Artillery and Stores For Alexandria.

LONDON, August 4.

The seamen on board the ship Luscar, engaged for the Egyptian expedition, have struck and refuse to proceed.

CAIRO, August 4.

The official rebel journal has published a description of a great national meeting held last Saturday. After considering the decrees emanating from the Khedive, including the order dismissing Arabi Pasha from office as Minister of War, the meeting declared that in consequence of the occupation of Alexandria by foreign troops and the presence of the English squadron in Egyptian waters, the attitude of Arabi Pasha be held in repute and that he must be upheld as Minister of War and the Khedive and his ministers in Alexandria null and void, as they have acted contrary to our religious and civil laws. The Under Secretaries of State were entrusted to submit this decision to the Sultan. The decision is signed by Prince Ibrahim Ismed and Kamel.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 4. The Conference will sit again Friday. At yesterday's sitting the question of protection of the canal was discussed. Onon, the Russian representative, impressed his views of the laws as binding. The Conference required that Turkey should first endeavor to restore order in Egypt. Should Turkey not succeed in this endeavor then the Powers should undertake the task. Baron Von Hirschfeld, the German Representative, and Baron Von Colice, Austro-Hungarian Ambassador, concurred in this opinion. Lord Dufferin, the British ambassador, said he desired Turkey to take action on condition the Porte declare Arabi Pasha a rebel. Said, the Turkish Prime Minister maintained it impossible for the Porte to declare Arabi Pasha a rebel until the Ottoman flag was raised in Egypt, when the conduct of Arabi Pasha would be determined and measures be taken accordingly Court Corte. Italian ambassador, demanded that the accepted condition of the identical note be put in writing, to which the Ottoman representative replied that they must first obtain the sanction of the Sultan. The Conference is awaiting fresh instructions to the Ottoman representatives thereon, which it is believed will not be needed if the condition of the identical note has been accepted by Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, August 4. Two transports started for Alexandria last evening with artillery and stores.

POTTSMOUTH, August 4.

The transport Catalonia to-day took to Egypt, General Sir Edward Hawley, General Sir Evelyn Wood and the West Kent regiment. The Queen shook hands with them and wished for a speedy report. The troops heartily cheered her and she was visibly moved.

LONDON, August 4.

In the House of Commons to-day, Dilke said the Government had no knowledge that Russia had surrendered an installment of Russo-Turkish war indemnity to Turkey, or had otherwise tried to promote Turkish intervention in Egypt against England's intervention.

Troublesome Cowboys.

TUCSON, August 3.

A Star special from Phoenix of August 3 says: A fight took place in this town this afternoon between three presumable cowboys and the officers, assisted by citizens. All three of the cowboys were captured. One was killed and one badly wounded. No one else was hurt. As the prisoners were being taken to jail an attempt was made to lynch them. They were pushed under a tree and loud calls were made for a rope. The officers with a posse came to their rescue and removed them to jail.

Tricks of the Trade.

A sinful showman recently approached the proprietor of a summer hotel on the Massachusetts coast with a proposition which must have required heroic resolution to decline. He proposed to construct from fine black rubber a gigantic sea serpent, with all the horrors attributed to that creature in the most appalling perfection. It was to be secretly immersed in the water in front of the hotel, and then at irregular intervals, by means of mechanical connections, made to rise to the surface, extend its jaw, flaunt its tail, and generally disport itself in the most blood-curdling manner. Having fixed the gaze of all the people at the hotel and in the neighborhood, it was to disappear, probably with a resounding snort of defiance, for a snorting attachment could have been easily provided.

A Touching Incident.

After a young child had died and had been laid in its casket in Auburn, Cal., a few days ago, a rosebud was plucked from a neighboring garden, and the stem was placed in one of the lifeless little hands. A day or two elapsed between this incident and the funeral ceremony. When the service was held the rosebud in the hand of clay was seen to gradually unfold. When the service was held the bud had become a blossom. The phenomenon gave peculiar pleasure to the afflicted family, and was very prettily referred to by the clergyman.

The Caledonian Picnic.

The Caledonian picnic to-morrow will undoubtedly be the largest of the season. Everything has been done by the Committee of Arrangements to make this gathering the greatest success of all. The prizes offered by the Club are numerous and expensive, and will no doubt attract many competitors. There are prizes for nearly every kind of games, and everybody will have a chance to get one. Prof. Carr's full band will accompany the excursion and furnish music for the dancers. The train will leave Reno at 7 o'clock in the morning. Don't get left.

THE INQUEST.

What the Coroner's Jury Say Caused the Death of Frank Hobart. Coroner Dickens held an inquest to-day upon the body of the man found dead near Lemmons Station yesterday. From the testimony it seems that his name was Frank Hobart, and not Frank B. Agou. The man Adams was called and told his story, the substance of which was that he left Millford last Tuesday with a 2-horse team to come to Reno. He overtook deceased on the road near Friday's station in Long Valley and that deceased asked Adams to let him ride and with Adams' consent he got into the wagon and they drove to Wall's ranch where they remained all night, the two men occupying the same bed in Adams' wagon. In the morning they left and drove to Dave Evans' ranch, stopping at one or two places between Wells and Evans where Hobart got whisky and became considerably under its influence. At Evans' Hobart bought a bottle of liquor, and the two men drank considerably. Coming down the grade, about a half a mile north of Lemmons, Hobart became abusive and threatened Adams with a thrashing, telling him he was "all the same as the James boys," and that if he had a knife he would CUT HIS HEAD OFF.

And attempted to take the lines away from Adams and succeeded in getting one of them and the other dropped to the ground. Hobart was sitting "tailor fashion" on the seat, and in the struggle to obtain possession of the line Adams knocked deceased off the seat, and he fell to the ground, Adams driving off and leaving him, being, as he said, afraid to stop. He went on to Lemmons and wanted to leave Hobart's valise, which was in the wagon, but Lemmons refused to let him leave it, and he went on to Poland Station, where he remained all night. He swore that they had no fight but that Hobart struck him on the nose and mouth and tried to pull him off the seat. Other witnesses testified, but no additional facts were brought out and as Drs. Bergman and Bishop testified that the wounds on the man's hip and under his ear might have been produced by the wagon wheels passing over his head the jury

RETURNED A VERDICT.

In the matter of the inquisition upon the body of Frank Hobart, deceased, we, the jurors summoned to appear before Wm. Dickens, Coroner of the City of Reno and County of Washoe, on the 4th day of August, to inquire into the cause of the death of Frank Hobart, having been duly sworn according to law, and having made said inquisition after inspecting the body and hearing the testimony adduced, upon our oaths each and all do say: We find the deceased was named Frank Hobart, county of birth not known, aged about 30 years, and that he came to his death on August 2, 1882, in this country, by falling from a wagon, and its wheels running over his neck and face, while deceased was under the influence of liquor, on the Long valley road about 400 yards from Fielding Lemmons'. Our opinion is that the deceased came to his death accidentally. All of which we duly certify by this writing, by us signed this 4th day of August, 1882.

The Outlook at Eureka.

The Leader says: Times in Eureka are undoubtedly dull at present, but scarcely more so than is usual during the summer season. There is certainly no reason to look blue over the business outlook. The amount of tax on the proceeds of the mines for the quarter ending June 30th, exceeded that of the previous quarter by $1,200. The assessment roll shows a large increase in the taxable property over that of last year. If property is increasing in value and the output of the mines is going up, there certainly can be no good reason why business should go down. Our business men should keep on their shirts, for better days are surely in sight.

After the Harvest.

Many of the farmers are now baling their hay. The crop was exceptionally good, and stockmen are already here to arrange for feeding large herds of cattle the coming winter. The ranchers will be able to realize good prices for their hay. Grain is looking well and will give a good yield. The potato crop will be as good or better as in former years, and taking it all in all, the people of this section ought to enjoy a prosperous fall.

Now is the Time.

S. M. Jamison & Co., are selling goods cheaper than ever. They intend to reduce their large and elegant stock to make room for the Fall patterns, and it is a good time to call on them. A finer class of goods cannot be found in the town.

POOR OLD BARNES.

A Journalistic Fraud at Last at the End of his Rope—Again in Jail in Bodie.

(Bodie Free Press.)

Tuesday afternoon W. W. Barnes made a raid on the Evening Miner office with disastrous results, both to the standing type in that office and to his own head. Mr. Barnes was once the owner of the type, press, etc., which is employed in printing that paper, and he claims to be the owner of it still. He used it in publishing the Columbus Borax Miner, the Mono Messenger, published at Benton, and the Mammoth City Herald. From Mammoth City the material was moved to Bodie over a year ago, with a view to starting a paper here. This material has passed out of his possession under such circumstances that he claims to be still the rightful owner of it, and he is especially emphatic upon this point when under the influence of liquor, as was his condition Tuesday when he entered the Miner office. He walked up to the frame where the genial Dan Jones was at the time "setting out of his head" some specially lively items, and in a careless way tipped over a whole gallery of type. Upon a request to leave the sacred premises of the sanctum, he complied, but on the way seized the fourth page form and hauled it off the imposing stone, and had the first page nearly off before he could be restrained. Mr. Curry went off and had a warrant issued for Barnes' arrest, but while he was absent the late ex-publisher returned. Justice Thomas Newman, who is owner of the material, was in the office at this time. He warned Barnes against doing further damage, who replied that this was his own office and he could do what he pleased with it. He (Newman) had stolen the office, but it belonged to himself (Barnes). He is charged with following up his remarks by striking Judge Newman, who, notwithstanding the disadvantage of a wooden leg, is mighty lively in a "scrap" fight. The Judge struck out with a stout stick, and soon had his adversary a fit subject for the doctor. Barnes being considerably bruised about the head and bleeding profusely. He was subsequently arrested on a charge of malicious mischief, and will be brought before Justice Phlegar for trial.

Accident in Washoe Valley.

In Washoe valley, not far from Franktown, yesterday about noon an Italian named Andrea Beateni met with a very serious accident. He was riding on a load of hay when a stake by which he was holding on, pulled out and he was pitched forward from the load. He fell across the tongue of the wagon, striking upon his spine in such a way as to temporarily paralyze him. Thence he rolled to the ground, and one of the fore wheels of the wagon passed over his head, badly cutting it and almost crushing his skull. Beateni is a hale and stout young fellow, and it is thought he will probably pull through all right.

Stanford's Vineyards.

Ex-Governor Leland Stanford is developing into the largest vinticulturist in California. The Gerke ranch, near Chico, of which he is the owner, contains 1,000 acres for planting with vines without delay. The land will have one thousand vines to the acre, making four million vines in the entire tract. Very recently Mr. Stanford occupied two sections of Southern Pacific Railroad lands within six miles of Colton, San Bernardino county, which, it is reported, he intends to improve in a similar manner to the property mentioned.

To Prof. Ring's Pupils.

There will be a meeting and rehearsal at the Nevada Theatre to-morrow evening to prepare for Mr. Ring's reception. The several committees desire that all who have ever attended Mr. Ring's school during the past ten years, will be on hand promptly at 8 o'clock.

Complimented Improvement.

N. L. Breed, of Janesville, Cal., has purchased the old Stopher corner, at the intersection of Plaza and Sierra street opposite the GAZETTE office. He intends to put up a large brick building on the lot next Spring. That will remove one of the oldest land marks in Reno.

He Won't Object.

General Kittrell says he won't object if all the Republicans in this District vote for him for District Judge. He says he will not make a single speech during the campaign—that to his species defeat has been attributed too many times.

Excitement at Franktown.

The GAZETTE learns that Franktown was enlivened this morning by an elopement. The usually quiet little town is bound to keep in fashion. At last accounts the friends and relatives of the naughty pair were after them.

Early in the Morning.

All who intend going to the picnic to-morrow must be on hand at 7 o'clock sharp, as the excursion cars will be attached to the regular morning express.

Arm Broken.

A Chinaman riding to town horse-back last evening had his arm broken by his saddle turning and throwing him to the ground. Dr. Bergman rendered the necessary medical aid.
